International Air Transport Association (IATA) Accredited School

IATA training partners are independent organizations to deliver dangerous goods training programs locally authorized by IATA. To assist IATA to improve air transport's safety, steadiness and economic; cultivating of air transportation of dangerous goods professionals and increasing air transport safety standards, we were accredited by IATA as an authorized training school (IATA ATS) in 2013.

We have launched in dangerous goods related courses from 2013. The course is based on the most updated Dangerous Goods Regulations (DGR).

■ Outlines of the course

- IATA's Historical background and Development
- Dangerous goods Classification & Hazard Lables
- Dangerous goods Identification
- UN Packaging Specification and Performance Tests
- Packing Instructions
- Limited Quantityt
- Marking & Labelling
- Declaration
- Handling
- Emergency Response
- National legislation introduced
- Course evaluation

■Lecturer: Peter Liu

■Course Duration：

Initial	2016.04.18- 2016.04.22	09:00~12:00 & 13:00~18:00
Refresher	2016.04.11- 2016.04.13
(Note: The expiration date for the certificate is 24 months after the last effective date.)

■Course Location: Peter Liu

■Course Price:

- Basic Course：NT$13,000 for each person (Contain 5 days lunch and tea time)
- Refresh Course：NT$8,000 for each person (Contain 3 days lunch and tea time)

Note: People who apply the course need to prepare the latest 57th DGR (2016) by himself, or contact us for booking the latest 57th DGR in price NT$6,300.

IATA DGR Training Course Apply Application － March Basic course/Refresh course

Company name			Uniform numbers
Company address	□□□		TEL
			FAX
			E-mail

Job title	Chinese name	English name (passport)	Identification number	Birthday(y/m/d)

Note: Company address is for the application of delivering certificate. If you are a vegetarian, please let us know in advance.

Registration Total price is NT$_____.